

After twelve great years of quilting retreats at Camp Ocean Pines, the event has expanded. Now reaching into three lodges to accommodate at least forty quilters,

Rob is extremely excited to share his favorite place to get away and quilt with a whole new group of quilters.

This is a “one of a kind” event and should not to be missed!

ROB APPELL PRESENTS:

Four Day Quilting Retreat

Get away and just quilt until your heart is content with master quilter and sewing machine technician, Rob Appell as he guides you on a quilting adventure you will not forget. There are no rules, no required projects, loud (but good) music, beer and wine, and tons of friends to spend the extended weekend with.

FOUR DAY QUILTING RETREAT

MAIN LODGE:

The Main lodge will hold about 24 quilters all on their own six foot table. There is a cozy stone fire place, and all the meals are close. Choosing the main lodge for your spot is wise if you are new to Rob's style of quilting, or just feel like a bit of extra attention form the staff and lots of quilting friends.

CRAFTS LODGE:

The Crafts lodge, is close to the main lodge, yet still has an ocean view. The Crafts lodge is smaller and cozy, lighting is bit better, and temperatures consistent. The Crafts lodge has a small gas fireplace, seats twelve quilters on six foot tables, and is covered in a whimsical mosaic for added inspiration. A great place to be for some help and some independence.

PINES LODGE:

The Pines lodge, is up on the hill, snuggled deep into the pine trees, and close to the outdoor amphitheater. Great quilting space for about twelve quilters on six foot tables each. Newly added restrooms, and great vaulted ceilings. This is the lodge for the self-motivated quilter as it is furthest from the commotion of all the other quilters.
